How can you attend Citizenship Washington Focus?

4-H youth who attend the CWF program are usually selected by 4-H state or county delegations. Contact your local 4-H educator at your county Extension office for details and how to apply.

If you are a 4-H state CWF Coordinator, or would like to bring your own delegation to CWF, contact our sales department at 1-800-FOUR-H-DC (1-800-368-7432). Or go online to www.4HCWF.org

Stay in comfort and safety at the Center of it all

The Citizenship Washington Focus program utilizes the National 4-H Youth Conference Center for housing and meals. Some great features of the Center include:

• All-you-can-eat dining at the Clover Café
• 24 hour security
• Accessible for the disabled
• Recreation room with game arcade, internet café and gift shop
• Basketball and volleyball courts and plenty of green space for fun outdoor play
• Ample free parking for buses and cars
Helping to shape tomorrow’s leaders

Citizenship Washington Focus (CWF) is a week-long 4-H citizenship program for youth ages 14-19. CWF provides opportunities for young people to:

- Strengthen communication, leadership and other citizenship skills on a national level
- Understand the importance of civic and social responsibilities as they relate to the development of better citizens and leaders
- Exchange ideas, practice respect and form friendships with other youth from diverse backgrounds

Role Models guide the way

College-aged Program Assistants serve as tour guides and facilitators, who immerse delegates in the culture and history of Washington, DC. These role models, many of whom are outstanding 4-H alumni, will lead the way to:

- The Capitol
- Mount Vernon
- Arlington National Cemetery
- Presidential and War Memorials
- Smithsonian Museums

The premier 4-H national summer conference

Citizenship Washington Focus gives 4-H youth the opportunity to explore, develop, and refine the civic engagement skills they need to be outstanding leaders in their community, country and world. Through sightseeing tours in Washington, D.C. and hands-on educational workshops, youth will learn about the history of our nation and how they can apply their leadership and citizenship skills when they return home.

An Experience of a Lifetime in our Nation’s Capital • www.4HCWF.org