During adjudication, no person or persons shall be allowed to express positive or negative influence on judges. Violators of this rule will be subject to removal from the judging area and the exhibitor will be disqualified from all competition and will forfeit all his/her exhibits entered, entry fees, premiums and awards.

Judges will sign the award book after verifying the awards recorded by the clerk and superintendents immediately after a judged class.

The judges' decision is final in all matters of competition, placing, classification and age of animal, allowing only a formal appeal as is indicated in the protest section below.

PROTEST

If there is a complaint to any Junior Livestock Show & Sales and Indoor Exhibits activities. Any individual can protest by submitting a written protest. The written Protest must be accompanied by a $75.00 money order. The complaint must be delivered to the Grievance Committee Chairperson prior to the sale. If the protest is lost, the $75.00 will be forfeited. If the protest is won, the $75.00 will be returned.

The judging procedures will not be interrupted for a protest investigation. Depending on the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is done and complete. If there is a complaint and protest that a judge overlooked an animal, it will not be considered.

CONDUCT

Any act of discourtesy, disobedience and/or foul language to the 4-H/FFA Junior Livestock Show & Sales and Indoor Exhibits Committee and staff, by the exhibitor, parents, 4-H Leaders, and/or sponsors in part of the exhibitor will disqualify the exhibitor from all competition and the exhibitor will forfeit all his/her exhibits entered, entry fees, premiums and awards.

Any exhibitor, parent(s), 4-H Leader and/or sponsor who attempts and/or interferes with the judges performance of their duties or make any false statements in regard to any animal exhibited or interfere with the clerks and/or record books of any competition will be subject to removal from the Junior Livestock grounds by disciplinary action.
LIABILITY

The 4-H/FFA Junior Livestock Show & Sale and Indoor Exhibits Committee and staff, Navajo Nation Fair Committee will not be responsible for any accidents, injury and/or loss to any and all livestock, indoor exhibits, exhibitors and/or parents. Exhibitors are recommended to carry their own liability insurance.

The Judges and the Grievance Committee reserves the right to disqualify and excuse any animal from all entry and competition due to dangerous behavior and sickness and/or lameness.

SPECIAL AWARDS

SHOWMANSHIP AWARD: The top showman out of each Division will be eligible for the overall Showmanship Champion. The Showmanship judging will be judged after the Reserve Champions. The Booster Division is excluded from the Showmanship Award.

ROUND ROBIN SHOWMANSHIP: The overall Showmanship Champions of the Market, Breeding and Goats Division will compete for the Round Robin Showmanship Award. The overall Showmanship Champions of each Small Animal Division will compete for the Round Robin Showmanship Award separately. An award will be awarded to the exhibitor who portrays an overall Showmanship ability. The Booster Division is excluded from the Round Robin Showmanship Award. Exhibitors must bring the same animal that they won Showmanship with.

Booster Lambs Showmanship will be awarded if sponsor is available.

HERDSMANSHIP AWARD: The overall Herdsmanship Award will be awarded to the individual that displays the best job throughout the entire fair in the following areas. The winner will receive an award. A special Award will presented by the Francisco’s Family.

Criteria that will be observed for Herdsmanship Award:
- Grooming and care of self.
- Feeding and care of livestock.
- Assisting and cooperating with other exhibitors and officials.
- Explaining what the 4-H Program is to visitors.
- Keeping the entire area neat and clean.
JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SALE

The Junior Livestock Sale will be held on September 06, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. in the show arena for all eligible market animals.

Lamb Division: Only the top four (4) from each class including the Grand and Reserve Champions will be eligible for the sale. Only the Grand and Reserve Booster Lambs will sell in the auction. If one of the top 4 pulls from sale, next place lamb moves up and sells. Depending on number of animals in sale, the committee will decide to put additional Booster lambs in the sale.

Beef Division: Only the top one (1) from each class including the Grand and Reserve Champions will be eligible for the sale. A total of five market beef will sell in the auction. There will be a maximum sale weight of 1250 pounds.

Swine Division: Only the top two (2) from each class including the Grand and Reserve Champions will be eligible for the sale. A total of 8 market swine will sell in the auction. There will be a Maximum sale weight of 265 pounds.

Goat Division: The 1st place market goats in each weight class will compete for Grand & Reserve Championship and the Grand & Reserve Champions will go to the Junior Livestock Sale.

Rabbit Division: The Rabbit Meat Pen and Pen of Fryers classes will not sell in the auction.

Exhibitors are limited to sell one of each different species. (ex. 1 lamb, 1 steer, 1 swine)

The Grand Champion and Reserve Champion for each species must sell. All market animals that are committed to the sale must sell and be sold. If two market animals of the same species qualify for the sale, the higher placing animal will sell. If qualifying market animal is going to be pulled from the sale, exhibitor must notify the superintend immediately. No replacement or substitution of a lesser placing animal may occur by the exhibitor.

BOOSTER LAMBS: Only the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Booster Lambs will sell in the auction with the other Champion Animals at the beginning of the sale order, if there is only class of booster lambs. If two classes occur see special rules on page 14, # 10 & 11. Depending on number of animals in sale, the committee will decide to put additional Booster lambs in the sale.

No exhibitor will be allowed to have his or her animal(s) donated back, All sold market animal(s) will go directly to packer, no business or commitments on these animal(s) shall be made at any time during the fair or on the fairgrounds. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Any animal(s) sold through Navajo Nation Fair that is exhibited at another fair will resolve in the exhibitor being banned from the next Navajo Nation Fair Junior Livestock Show.

There may be a terminal market for all out-of-state livestock. The state laws of Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Colorado and the Navajo Nation regulate out-of-state transportation of livestock, into and out of Arizona and the Navajo Nation.

Any market animal that has been sold in a previous fair cannot be entered into a market class at the Navajo Nation Fair Junior Livestock Show.
The Junior Livestock sale will be a terminal sale. The exhibitor highest placing animal must sell. All animals will be released to a packer that will be specified by the Junior Livestock committee. No exhibitor will be allowed to have her/his animal donated back to him or her. Money from the packer will submitted into the Junior Livestock account to support the sales &show.

Percentage Withheld:

4% of the sale amount for each lamb/pig sale will be held by the Junior Livestock Show committee.

3% of the sale amount for each steer sale will be held by the Junior Livestock committee

2% will be used to support the Navajo Nation Junior Livestock sale.

The other 2% will be placed in a Contingency fund.

Checks will be mailed out after Buyers have paid and Thank You letters to the buyers are turned into the 4-H office.
