Maricopa County Fair
1826 W. McDowell Rd.
Phoenix, AZ 85007

1. Contact the 4-H General Projects Coordinator with questions about proper entry classes; Contact the County Fair Office with questions about registering online and making payments.
2. 4-H members entering this department must be enrolled in a Maricopa County 4-H club for the current club year - October 1, 2021 - September 30, 2022. Cloverbuds are members who are 5-7 years old (born in 2014, 2015 or 2016), Juniors are members who are 8-10 years old (born in 2011, 2012, or 2013), Intermediate members are 11-13 years old (born in 2008, 2009, or 2010), and Seniors are members who are 14-19 years old (born in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 or 2007) before January 1, 2021.
3. Members must be currently enrolled in the 4-H project in which they intend to exhibit at the fair. All exhibits must have been made solely by the 4-H member as part of his/her project learning, not in school or other organizations during the current 4-H year.
4. Larger exhibits should be discussed with the 4-H General Projects Coordinator, before entering.
5. All Junior, Intermediate, and Senior exhibits will be judged by the Danish System and will earn either a Blue, Red, or White Award Ribbon based on standards expected. An award for Best in Division may be chosen.
6. The 4-H General Projects Coordinator, 4-H Staff or Fair Staff may disqualify or move an exhibit for incorrect entry, condition, or inappropriateness. They also reserve the right to remove or dispose of plants or food showing signs of decay or spoilage during the run of the fair.
7. No premium monies are awarded for 4-H projects
8. Refer to the 4-H Supplemental Fair Book at (website) for more detailed descriptions of exhibits and expectations.
9. Judging is closed to the public. It shall be at the sole discretion of the judges whether the entries are awarded Blue, Red, or White Awards or Best of Show Rosettes. No division or class may be reopened after the judging is finished. Information on awards is available after opening day of the fair.
10. No exhibit may contain live animals.
11. Exhibitors may choose to sell their item(s). Item must be marked for sale on the entry and a sale price included. The fair will retain 10% commission on each item sold. All sales MUST go through the fair office – no direct sales allowed.

Judging Interview

Each exhibitor will have the opportunity to talk with a judge, share what they have learned, discuss any struggles they had with their project, explain their project, and get some expert feedback. Each exhibitor is expected to meet with at least one judge. If an exhibitor enters in more than one division they may interview with up to four judges, but only one is required. Exhibitors will be contacted to sign up for an interview time. Judging of the exhibits will be done after all the exhibits have arrived and exhibitors have left.

4-H Member Classes: For all General Projects exhibit classes, contact the 4-H General Projects Coordinator for further guidance on project exhibits.
