Live virtual class conducted via Zoom from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM	Self-guided materials and videos	Live virtual class conducted via Zoom from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM

Registration Deadline: Friday, April 16

The new virtual class requires participation for all three days.*

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the University of Arizona has canceled all in-person training until further notice. We are offering the Certified Professional Food Manager (CPFM) class virtually and referring participants to take the exam through Prometric's ProProctor service. The course is provided using Zoom and D2L Community site platforms. We will continue to facilitate the program virtually every month until further notice. Due to these changes, the registration fee is $52. The exam portion must be completed through the Prometric ProProctor online testing website where you are responsible for paying the exam fee of $48.

If you would like to take the class in the online format, or have questions about the new format, please call Lydia Watts at 928-445-6590 x221. A study guide will be mailed out with instructions on how to log in to D2L Community site and register for the Prometric ProProctor exam after registration and payment are received. If you would like to wait until our class resumes in-person training, visit our website at <https://extension.arizona.edu/yavapai-food-safety-preservation> for updates. For additional questions, please contact Aimee Novak at aimeenovak@arizona.edu.

Cost: Non-refundable $52.00 for class. If unable to attend class, please contact yavapapres@cals.arizona.edu to reschedule. Rescheduling option valid for 6 months from the original registration date.

Time: Each Zoom live session starts at 9:00 am; log in to D2L Community site 10 minutes prior.
