Dear 4-Her's, Families, Volunteers, and Leaders,

As a new year of 4-H begins in Pima County we are excited to get back to doing after a year of social distancing and virtual competitions. With the new year brings new changes, with two new staff members being welcomed into the 4-H office, fees for joining 4-H being waived, and many new leaders and volunteers joining our forces we are excited for the future these changes bring! Lets make it a great year!

Best,

Kalee Hunter, and Liz Sparks

News From Around The County!

OMG

Arizona 4-H is excited to bring you the Copper State Livestock Judging Series through the leadership of the University of Arizona Livestock Judging Collegiate Team. The Copper State Livestock Judging Series is a multiple event livestock judging contest organized and coordinated in partnership livestock exhibitions across Arizona for 4-H and FFA youth. Youth (teams) will need to participate in a minimum of three different contests to be eligible for award prizes.

Pima County Executive Council is sponsoring the Jim Click Raffle again this year!

If you are a club leader or a county project coordinator and would like to use this raffle as a fundraiser for your club or county project please email Kalee for more details and to pick up tickets.

The Arizona 4-H program is excited to announce the inaugural Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo. The event will be a convening of Arizona 4-H youth who participate in large- and small-livestock projects. Youth from across the state will have a chance to grow, learn, practice, and showcase their knowledge at the Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo through exhibition and knowledge contests. Clinics will also be provided to help youth to grow in their project Mastery.

4-H Club Enrollment Now Open!

County and State Fees to join are waived this year! Find a club to join near you on our website, and enroll on Zsuite today!
