

SUCCESSFUL DESERT GARDENING SERIES

University of Arizona Cooperative Extension will be hosting a "Successful Desert Gardening Series" at the U of A Cooperative Extension, 820 E. Cottonwood Lane, Bldg. C, located in the County Complex just west of Safeway. Class is from 7:00pm to 8:30pm. This will be a practical, in-depth view of the principles required to grow healthy outdoor plants in the desert southwest. Excellent speakers and answers to your gardening questions.

March 27, 2019 - Desert Adapted Plants presented by Phil Bond

April 24, 2019 - Citrus by Rick Gibson

May 22, 2019 - Flower Gardens for Color by Rick Gibson

June 26, 2019 - Integrated Pest Management by Naomi Pier

Sept 25, 2019 - Fall Vegetable Gardens by Rick Gibson

October 23, 2019 - Planting Trees & Shrubs Correctly by Rick Gibson

November 27, 2019 - Low Water Use Landscapes by Rick Gibson

December 18, 2019 - Pruning Fruit Trees by Rick Gibson

Please RSVP to save your seat by contacting either BJ Seemuth at (520) 431-6167, at bjseem@cox.net . or Theresa Ellsworth at (520) 836-5221 x202 or tellswor@cals.arizona.edu

The fee is $10.00 per person, paid by check, money order or cash at the door. (Sorry, cannot accept credit cards).