

James E. Rogers College of Law, The University of Arizona
Global Mining Law Center; On-line Courses (January, 2021)

Introductory Materials:¹

+Law 585 (2 units) Introduction to Legal Systems, taught by Matthew Bingham, Professor of Practice. Required for non-law students.

+Law 640G (1 unit) Introduction to the International Mining Industry, taught by Mary M. Poulton, Professor Emerita, Co-Director, Lowell Institute for Mineral Resources (subtitled in English). Required for non-mining students.

+LAW 640B (1 unit), Law of the Use of Public Land Resources, taught by John C. Lacy with guest interviews.

Mining Law:

Law 640 (3 units) International and Comparative Mining Law, taught by John C. Lacy, Director of the Global Mining Law Center and Professor of Practice.

+Law 640A (2-3 units) U.S. Public Land and Mining Law, taught by John C. Lacy, Director of the Global Mining Law Center and Professor of Practice.

Environmental and Sustainability:

+Law 554 (3 units) Environmental Law, taught by Kirsten Engel, Charles E. Ares Professor of Law.

+LAW 640P (3 units): Community Engagement and Sustainable Development of Mineral Resources, coordinated by Kristi Disney Bruckner, Luke Danielson and Ashley Smith-

Roberts Professors of Practice. Available Fall 2021.

Law 696I (2-3 units) International Environmental Law for Mineral Development, taught James Hopkins, Associate Clinical Professor, Indigenous Peoples Law and Policy.

Tax and Valuation:

+Law 640H (2 units) Global Mining Tax Law, Policy and Disclosure/ Sustainability, taught by Stephen F. Ralbovsky, Professor of Practice.

+Law 640D/MNE 697F (2 units) Valuation of Mineral Assets and Projects taught by David R. Hammond, Professor of Practice.

+MNE 697G (1 unit) Acquisition and Financing of Mineral Projects, taught by Douglas B. Silver, Professor of Practice.

Acquisition and Due Diligence:

+Law 640C (3 units) Contractual and Related issues for Land Acquisition and Mineral Development, taught by John C. Lacy, Director of the Global Mining Law Center and Professor of Practice with guest interviews.

+MNE 697B (1 unit) Corporate Organization and Governance in Mining, taught by Tim Snider, Professor of Practice.

+LAW 698Q (2 units), Managing Public Lands under the National Environmental Policy Act, coordinated by John C. Lacy with presentations by Jim Tress and Kim Otero of WestLand Resources, an environmental compliance firm.

Mine Health and Safety:

+Law 640E (3 units) International Mining Safety Law and Practice, taught by Mary Poulton, Professor Emerita (subtitled in English), with supplemental materials on

¹ Courses have been categorized as “domestic track” with a “+” or “international track” with a “*”. This is informational only to inform students of the emphasis of the course. In many instances, a course will have both domestic and international application.

International Mining Health Law and Practice by Leila Barraza, Professor of Public Health and Eric Lutz, Professor of Practice.

Other On-Line Course Options:

+Law 540 (3 units) Introduction to Human Rights Law, developed by Kristine Huskey, Associate Clinical Professor of Law

Law 544B (3 units) Introduction to International Commercial Transactions, developed by Marek Dubovec, Professor of Law

+Law 550A (3 Units) Native American Law and Policy, taught by Melissa L. Tatum, Research Professor of Law

Law 553A (3 units) International Trade Law and Policy, developed by David A. Gantz, Samuel M. Fegtly Professor of Law

+Law 555 (3 units) Intellectual Property, developed by Derek Bambauer, Professor of Law

+Law 614B (3 units) Governance, Risk Management and Compliance, developed by Barak Orbach, Professor of Law

+LAW 643D (3 units) Native American Natural Resources Law, taught by Tory Fodder, Manager, Indigenous Governance Program

LLM and MLS Degree Requirements (total of 30 units required for MLS, total of 24 units required for LLM) include the following:

+Law 640G (1 unit) Introduction to the International Mining Industry (for LLM) or +Law 585 (2 units) Introduction to Legal Systems (for MLS)

+Law 640A (3 units) U.S. Public Land and Mining Law or *Law 640 (3 units) International and Comparative Mining Law

+Law 554 (3 units) Environmental Law or *Law 696I (2-3 units) International Environmental Law for Mineral Development

+Law 640F/MNE 697P (3 units) The Emerging Framework for Development of Mineral Resources (Community Expectations for Mineral Development and Social Sustainability)

+Law 640H (2 units) Global Mining Tax Law, Policy and Disclosure/ Sustainability,

+Law 640C (3 units) Contractual and Related issues for Land Acquisition and Mineral Development,

+LAW 698Q (2 units), Managing Public Lands under the National Environmental Policy Act (required for domestic track only)

+Law 640E (3 units) International Mining Safety Law and Practice

Remaining units from other offerings

Certificates can be awarded for completion of 12 units within the curriculum.

Mining Summits (one-day in-person seminars):

2016: "Exploring Collaborative Solutions to Mined Land Remediation"

2017: "Building Capacity for Mineral Development with Native Americans and Indigenous Communities, a Two-Way Street"

2018: "Mine Safety, Sharing Solutions"

2019: "Mining Law for the Heavens and the Depths of the Sea"

2020: "New Frontiers in Community Engagement and Sustainable Development of Mineral Resources"

JCL, 01-26-2021