

Yavapai County Master Gardener Association OFFICER & COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

6/24/2024 Speakers Bureau updated

OFFICERS

President

1. Preside at all general and special meetings of the Master Gardener Association (MGA) and at Executive Committee meetings. See By-laws for the definition of Executive Committee. President may, at his or her option, delegate the authority to preside to the President-Elect, or to another member of the Executive Committee should the President-Elect be unavailable.
2. Appoint the Chairpersons of all standing committees and any special Committee, if necessary.
3. Be a non-voting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.
4. Coordinate preparation of an annual report with the Historian, for completion by the end of January.
5. Consult with the Yavapai County Extension Agent to coordinate the efforts of the MGA in fulfilling its objectives.
6. Call a meeting of all Officers and Committee Chairs in June to review the progress of the prior six months, the By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, etc.
7. Appoint a person or committee to audit the treasury books at the end of each calendar year.
8. Prepare a calendar of MGA meetings for the upcoming year, after the November election and prior to taking office. Prepare that calendar for distribution to all MGA members and for posting on the MG website.
9. Reserve meeting rooms in Prescott and the Verde Valley for the next year's monthly meetings of the MGA, preferably in October/November, prior to taking office.
10. Schedule a meeting of all new Officers, Committee Chairs and committee members in early January to make plans for the upcoming year.
11. Coordinate events that require involvement of more than one committee, e.g. Class Welcome, Recognition Picnic.
12. Pick up and return the key to the proper person for the meeting rooms in Prescott and Verde Valley (coordinate with President-elect).
13. Open meeting room, set-up (includes tables and chairs) (coordinate with President-elect).
14. Prepare the agendas for all monthly MGA meetings.
15. Update the Officers and Committees document annually.
16. Submit articles "from the president" to monthly Yavapai Connections

President-elect

1. Assume duties assigned by the President and assist the President as needed. President-elect should be prepared, at the option of the President, to preside over monthly meetings of the MGA in the area (Verde Valley, Prescott) of their residence.
2. Attend committee meetings as requested by the President and provide the Executive Committee with a report of committee activities.
3. Help keep order in meetings.
4. At monthly MGA meetings staff the welcome table: greet members, have members & guests sign in, and make temporary name tags for those who did not wear their name badges. Help to seat late-comers. Count the number of member and guest attendees, provide to the Secretary and post on the sign-in sheet. At the end of the meeting give sign-in sheet to Program Coordinator (who will scan and send a copy to the Membership Chair and the Secretary).

4. Introduce the speaker or provide moderator of the meeting with information about the speaker.
5. Provide information about future speakers at each MGA meeting.
6. Provide speaker with verbal thank you and gift (e.g. gift card).
7. Provide information on speakers at our meetings to the Communications Committee at least a month ahead of each meeting so they can publicize them.
8. Verde and Prescott area chairs should coordinate with each other and with the Program Advisor.
9. We do not offer honorarium to speakers. Mileage may be reimbursed on an individual case basis, e.g. driving from Phoenix, at the IRS mileage rate. Exceptions to this must be approved by the Executive Board.

Communications Committee

1. Publicity for MG Programs: provide publicity for Master Gardener services and programs via print, and Facebook media. This includes photography, brochure or bookmark preparation.
 - a) Continue producing the bookmarks for distribution and alternate with a brochure to provide to various institutions (like the library) to explain the extension office and its services.
 - b) Appoint one or more photographers to cover the publicity events previously described. Submit photographic copies to the committee chairperson and the MG Program Coordinator for storage on U of A BOX, where the Historian can access them. Ensure all subjects in the photos have a photo release on file before publishing photos. Check with the Program Coordinator who maintains this file.
 - c) Maintain list of garden clubs in the county, in collaboration with the Speakers Bureau.
2. Facebook Guidelines (see attachment).
3. Newsletter (Connections): Newsletter Editor provides monthly newsletters, determines submission dates, decides on article inclusion, lays out newsletter and works with proofreaders and contributors. Sends to MG Program Coordinator for review before distribution. Articles are due by the 20th of each month.
 - a) Newsletter to include:
 - Short write-up on upcoming month's MGA meeting, including time, date, location and speaker information when available (obtain from Program/Education Committee).
 - Quarterly Meet a Master Gardener article introducing active members from both sides of the county. Articles on new officers who have not been introduced should be given a high priority. The Volunteer Coordinator will identify potential candidates every year.
 - Names of newly certified Master Gardeners and, if applicable, their mentors, the month following meeting recognition, including photo when possible.
 - Recognition Picnic article with names/hours of those receiving recognition.
 - Gardening articles of interest and book reviews.
 - Approved education and volunteer opportunities for Master Gardeners.
 - Photos and short articles about MGA volunteers in action.
 - Listing of continuing education and volunteer opportunities.

Master Gardener Facebook Guidelines

1/30/2022

Primary Goal

- For Master Gardeners to share information with the public
- Drive clientele to Prescott and Camp Verde Help Desks and Yavapai County Extension website

Audience

- Yavapai County Master Gardeners
- The public (public comments are allowed)

Guidelines

- Statements of a political or religious nature will be removed by the moderators/administrators
- Horticulture specific questions can be answered but should include a link to the Help Desks in Prescott (Prescottmg@gmail.com) and Camp Verde (verdevalleymg@gmail.com) for further questions.
- Non-science based horticulture questions or comments of a controversial nature will be answered/responded to by the ANR Program Coordinator.
- OK to post current horticulture information (articles, photographs, graphics, etc.)
- Any questions or concerns about posts should be forwarded to ANR Program Coordinator for a response.
- OK to post MG or Extension events open to the public
- Photos of Master Gardeners should comply with U of A photo release policy (i.e. photo release on file). Contact Mary Barnes if questions.
- Information on the page should be timely and relevant to Yavapai County.
- Current information/trends, e.g. insect infestations, plants in bloom along roads, etc. are good things to post; information may be provided for posting by the Help Desks.

Administrators / Moderators

- Facebook Page Roles:
 - Administrators are Mary Barnes and Cathy Michener
 - Editors are Carolyn Shelley, Tracy Wiederaenders, Lee Atonna
- Assignments:
 - Editors: (Carolyn Shelley and Tracy Wiederaenders), will monitor the site on a regular basis (at least once a day), will answer pending questions and remove any inappropriate posts. Editors should be knowledgeable about the MG program, upcoming activities, etc. and/or know where to find the answers/links and try not to duplicate something already posted on the site. They will also invite individuals to like and follow our Facebook page.
 - Posters: Carolyn Shelley and Tracy Wiederaenders will add content, e.g. events that they are aware of, photos, horticulture articles/links, etc. Information may be provided by other Master Gardeners not familiar with how to post on FB.
 - You Tube: Guidelines are included in the Facebook Tips.
