2020-2021 Fall Master Gardener Class Syllabus

For the safety of everyone involved, the Yuma County Cooperative Extension will be offering the 2020-2021 Master Gardener class online. Once you have registered, you will be invited to the University of Arizona's Community d2l site. This site will be the location for all class events such as weekly classes, weekly discussions, with extra links to pertinent educational articles and videos. Each class will be posted on this site for a week to give students an opportunity to view the recordings on their own schedules and/or watch them more than once.
