2020 Gila County 4-H Small Stock Show

Join us at the Gila County Fairgrounds on March 28, 2020!

The show is open to all 4-H and FFA members.
There will be a raffle, dress-up contest, breed show and much more!
Registration starts at 8:30 am and the show starts at 9:00am

• Raffle
If possible, please bring an item for the raffle table. A raffle item can be anything that is “critter themed” such as an animal, a wall hanging, a bag of critter food, etc. All animals put in raffle must be approved by show superintendents.

• Dress up Contest
Dress your critter up! March is National Women’s History month. Extra consideration will be given to the best costume representing an influential woman from history. We ask that you use good taste in choosing costumes. Judging will begin during the lunch break. We have special prizes for the best costumes.

• Quiz Bowl
We will be hosting a written quiz bowl for juniors and seniors with teams of 3-5 members. And an individual high point winner. Questions will be general knowledge on rabbits, cavies and poultry. Please enter at the event.

• Food
Come hungry and support the Gila Hopper’s 4-H Club by eating at the food booth! We will serve lunch, snacks and drinks.

• Breed Show Rules and Information
All animals entering the building must be healthy, well-kept and housed in clean and safe cages. If in the opinion of the show officials, any animals and or cages that do not meet these requirements will be removed from the exhibit hall.

• Poultry Divisions and Awards
Large Fowl, Bantams, Waterfowl, Turkeys, Pigeons, and Quail will be judged according to the APA Standard of Perfection. Non-purebred birds will be judged according to overall condition and cannot be chosen as Grand or Reserve Best of Show.
