Food Preservation Workshop
August 29, 2019
1:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Introduction to Home Canning
This workshop reviews canning basics and demonstrates safe home-canning practices for fruits, vegetables, proteins, jellied products and pickles. Participants will be able to identify appropriate canning methods for different food items, proper packing and headspace, altitude adjustments, processing times and more. The workshop includes a canning demonstration - tomatoes. All participants will receive a print copy of the Complete Guide to Home Canning (196-page, color, spiral-bound resource book).

Workshop requires advanced registration that includes a non-refundable $28.00 fee to cover class costs.
