2023
NETC CONFERENCE
Tempe, AZ
APRIL 24 - 27, 2023

48TH | TECH

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

APPLYING TECHNOLOGY

making waves with technology: new tools for citizen scientists in scallop restoration efforts extension online presentation homebuyer education: using technology and social media to educate communities on best financial practices what's in your software toolbox?

edit like a pro in camtasia

make the most of your workday with microsoft office vgs application suite: improving extension impacts through timesaving technology utilizing qualtrics offline to collect program registration data

ACCESSIBILITY

motivate your mind with healthy habits in the workplace making your digital presentations more accessible zoom accessibility considerations for fostering equity universal design for learning (UDL)

TEACHING & LEARNING

harnessing technology tools and teamwork to deliver timely, engaging, educational extension outreach thinking outside the (server) box: leveraging an lms for unconventional uses let's walk florida! leveraging technology to encourage an active lifestyle during shutdown

IT MANAGEMENT

reflections and advice from a 30-year higher ed it veteran quit writing emails no one reads leadership - why is it so bleeping hard?

what is your crashplan? - in case you need to restore your data!

demystifying policies, standards, procedures, and guidelines. when to use each and tips for writing them.

WEB & SOCIAL MEDIA

engaging your audience: web vs. social media

when words are more than words development of an extension clientele management system and four key steps to create a successful application

INNOVATION

who needs extension? I'll just ask chat-gpt.: ai and its impact on and role in extension trends impacting extension iot: what is it and what do we do with it?

using technology to remove marine debris after hurricane michael and restore marine habitat hybrid work environment: unmasking the challenges we continue to face

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
Cooperative Extension