

MALTA STARTHISTLE

WANTED

NOXIOUS INVASIVE WEEDS

For more information on controlling invasive species, contact:

Southeastern Arizona Weed Management Area through
Arizona Cooperative Extension
520-766-3602 or (928) 359-2261

- Use a non-restricted broad-leaf herbicide before it blooms and seeds.
- Plant and maintain desirable plant species to compete with Malta Starthistle.
- Avoid transporting seeds by removing weed seeds from clothing.
- Clean farm equipment and sprayers when moving between fields or pastures.

Arizona State Forestry with support from United States Forest Service has funded all or a portion of this project. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

YELLOW STARTHISTLE

WANTED

NOXIOUS INVASIVE WEEDS

For more information on controlling invasive species, contact:

Southeastern Arizona Weed Management Area through
Arizona Cooperative Extension
520-766-3602 or (928) 359-2261

- Use a non-restricted broad-leaf herbicide before it blooms and seeds.
- Plant and maintain desirable plant species to compete with Yellow Starthistle.
- Avoid transporting seeds by removing weed seeds from clothing.
- Clean farm equipment and sprayers when moving between fields or pastures.

Arizona State Forestry with support from United States Forest Service has funded all or a portion of this project. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

ONIONWEED

WANTED

NOXIOUS INVASIVE WEEDS

For more information on controlling invasive species, contact:

Southeastern Arizona Weed Management Area through
Arizona Cooperative Extension
520-766-3602 or (928) 359-2261

- Use a non-restricted broad-leaf herbicide before it blooms and seeds.
- Treat by and pulling & double bag to landfill.
- Avoid transporting seeds by removing weed seeds from clothing.
- Clean farm equipment and sprayers when moving between fields or pastures.

Arizona State Forestry with support from United States Forest Service has funded all or a portion of this project. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

RUSSIAN KNAPWEED

WANTED

NOXIOUS INVASIVE WEEDS

For more information on controlling invasive species, contact:

Southeastern Arizona Weed Management Area through
Arizona Cooperative Extension
520-766-3602 or (928) 359-2261

- Use a non-restricted broad-leaf herbicide before it blooms and seeds.
- Plant and maintain desirable plant species to compete with Russian Knapweed.
- Minimize disturbance by vehicles, machinery, irrigation ditches, and livestock.
- Clean farm equipment and sprayers when moving between fields or pastures.

Arizona State Forestry with support from United States Forest Service has funded all or a portion of this project. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

WHITETOP

WANTED

NOXIOUS INVASIVE WEEDS

For more information on controlling invasive species, contact:

Southeastern Arizona Weed Management Area through
Arizona Cooperative Extension
520-766-3602 or (928) 359-2261

- Use a non-restricted broad-leaf herbicide before it blooms and seeds.
- Plant and maintain desirable plant species to compete with Whiteop.
- Minimize disturbance by vehicles, machinery, irrigation ditches, and livestock.
- Clean farm equipment and sprayers when moving between fields or pastures.

Arizona State Forestry with support from United States Forest Service has funded all or a portion of this project. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

