

Are You a Unicorn or Dragon?

Just in time for Halloween, Work with your child to cut out the unicorn mask, hoofs and tail or the dragon. Cut along the outside solid lines for each part of the unicorn or dragon. Coloring and cutting out the masks is a great way for your child to practice their fine motor skills!

These mask is just one example of a costume you can make with your child. Design your own and let your child express their creativity.

Unicorn mask - Cut out and color the mask with your child. Make sure to cut out the eye holes. After your child has finished coloring, attach a string or rubber band so they can wear their mask and show off their artistic side.

Unicorn hoofs - Turn your child's shoes into unicorn hoofs by cutting out and coloring each hoof. They can look like the rainbow or brown like a horse you see at the fair. After cutting them out, rubber band, tie or take the hoofs to each shoe.

Unicorn tail- No unicorn is complete without a tail! Cut out the tail with your child and let them make it as colorful as they can. After it has been colored, attach the tape with a string or tape.

Dragon mask - Cut out and color the mask with your child. Make sure to cut out the eye holes. After your child has finished coloring, attach a string or rubber band so they can wear their mask and show off their artistic side.

This fun activity helps your child :

- Improve fine motor skills by coloring and cutting out the unicorn pieces
- Use their imagination through role playing and acting out a character
- Work on problem solving skills by assembling the unicorn pieces
