

Relation Between Percent Plants Grazed and Utilization for Common Arizona Perennial Grasses

To estimate use: (1) observe 100 grass plants of the species you are interested in, (2) record the number of plants that have been grazed, (3) find percent use from graph by following vertical line up from "number of grazed plants" till it meets the species line you want then read the percent use on the vertical scale at left.

Figure VII